2027 ARMADA

Every grade. Every price. From one Nissan Canada price list.

The 30-second verdict: six grades, $85,998 to $106,998. The price steps are the story this list tells, so this guide sticks to exactly what the price list confirms, and nothing it does not.

WHAT THE PRICE LIST TELLS YOU

This guide is built from one document: the Nissan Canada 2027 Armada price list, effective September 17, 2026. It is a price list, not a feature guide, so it answers price questions precisely and stays silent on the rest. That silence is honest, and this guide keeps it.

How to read the list

Each row is one grade. Grade is the name on the price list. Transmission is printed as code A9 for every grade. Model is the factory order code. Option Group is the equipment group code. Suggested Retail is the price as labelled on the list.

The price ladder

SL	$85,998	the starting point
Dark Armor	$88,998	+$3,000 over SL
PRO-4X	$96,798	+$7,800 over Dark Armor
NISMO	$104,998	+$8,200 over PRO-4X
Platinum Reserve	$106,998	+$2,000 over NISMO
Platinum Reserve Cap. Chairs	$106,998	same price, option group CC00

Paint

Solid	$0
Metallic / Pearl	$300
2T Metallic / Pearl	$950

Paint is priced by finish type on the list, not by colour name. Solid costs nothing extra. Metallic or Pearl adds $300. Two-tone Metallic or Pearl adds $950.

Freight & PDE: $2,200

The price list states Freight & PDE includes Freight, PDI, a full tank of fuel and floor mats. Prices exclude Excise Tax for Air Conditioning. The amount of that tax is not stated on the list, so it is not printed here.

What this list does not tell you

Features per trim, colour names, engine and power, fuel use, seating, towing, arrival dates, and selling prices do not appear on this price list, so this guide does not print them. Ask Aum for the details behind any grade.

What paint costs extra? Solid is $0. Metallic or Pearl is $300. Two-tone Metallic or Pearl is $950.

Why no selling price in this guide? The price list gives Suggested Retail and Freight & PDE only. The air conditioning tax amount is not stated, so a selling price would be a guess.
